Junior Informal Dance Discussed

At the meeting of the Junior Informal Dance on Friday, a very spirited discussion was held regarding plans for the future of the Junior Informal as a whole.

It was decided that future dances should be held on Friday nights, and that steps should be taken to improve the selection of music.

Several other suggestions were made, including the possibility of having a theme for each dance.

PROFESSORS TO ASSIST

In a plan being put into effect by the faculty placement committee, headed by Professor Pekelsky, members of the senior class will be given rating cards which will be used by the placement office in its efforts to place them.

The idea is to provide a means for students to evaluate their professors, which will then be used by the placement office to make placement decisions.

Chairman of the committee is Professor Pekelsky.
