The Bowen Cup, which was awarded at Armour ceremony last year to one of the 30 members who first establish a national record in the 1935 season, is again at Armour. The Bowen Cup, along with the Waterbury Cup, is the only one of the three major cups that remains with Armour. Armour is the only other school in the nation to have a cup of this kind. The Bowen Cup is awarded to the captain of the victorious team in the national championship game.

"The Slipstick"

Close to "The Slipstick," let the Slipstick by where it may.

I'd found no matter what room

I'd stood them long as possible,

But fairly I put on

Sometimes there was glory, if you had

A clever bit of honor of whom

Nobody knew it but me.

So usually, if I went by,

And you, my good friends, I knew,

I would search until I found the place

That's no man's beared heart.

I read through every volume,

Tell folk how I appear,

I served as correspondent,

But my search was still in vain.

But suddenly when I glanced through

A maternal time,

I found out what I had been for.

A humorous new one

Set down as one of those in this healthy,

May appear a clever correspondent.

"Mother, do they have sheikesses in the town where we're going to live?"

Her answer.

"No, dear; it's an engineer's home, I believe."

In 1946, the Slipstick was printed in the first issue of the student newspaper at the University of California at Berkeley. The paper was called "The Slapstick," and it was the first student publication to use the new printing technology, letterpress. The Slipstick was a satirical and irreverent publication that challenged the status quo and criticized the university administration and the faculty. It was a cultural icon of the 1940s and 1950s, and it continues to be celebrated today for its satirical and irreverent style. The Slipstick was also known for its use of puns, wordplay, and humor, and it was a source of inspiration for many other student publications around the country.

BELL TELEPHONE SYSTEM

The Bell Telephone System is a telecommunications company that was founded in 1876 by Alexander Graham Bell, who is credited with inventing the telephone. The company was created to provide a nationwide telephone network and to compete with the existing Bell System, which was owned by AT&T. The company was later acquired by AT&T, and it continues to be a major player in the telecommunications industry today.

The company was founded as The Bell Telephone Company of Western Union, which later became the American Bell Telephone Company. In 1901, the company was acquired by AT&T, which became the parent company of the Bell System. The Bell System was a set of companies that provided telephone service in the United States, and it was controlled by AT&T until 1984, when it was broken up into several independent companies. The company was known for its innovation and leadership in the telecommunications industry, and it played a major role in the development of modern telecommunications technology.
To loneliness...I bring companionship
I am your best friend
I am your LuckyStrike

I am a friend indeed. A better friend than others, because I am made only of mild, fragrant, expensive center leaves. I don't permit a single thrip to leaf nor a single course bottom leaf to mar my good taste or my uniform mildness. I do not irritate. To loneliness I bring companionship. I am the best of friends.

So far as we know tobacco was first used about 4000 years.

Throughout the next 60 years what the tobacco has given so much pleasure to so vast a multitude.

Today the Governor of North Carolina says to the Governor of South Carolina—

"Have a cigarette"

TODAY people all over the world use tobacco in one form or another.

They chew it, they smoke it in pipes, they smoke cigarettes and cigars, and here is what an eminent physician said about cigarettes.

"I have been something of a student of cigarettes, and it is my belief that they offer the mildest and pleasant form in which tobacco is used."

Yes, nowadays the cigarette is the most popular form in which tobacco is used. A good cigarette certainly gives men and women a great deal of satisfaction.

Have a Cigarette—They’re Mild.

For another thing—they taste better.
