A. I. T. CYCLE PLACE IN CONTEST FOR COVER DESIGN
Annual Publication Gets Second Honor in Two Years
RECEIVES CASH AWARD
Second prize in the photo-competition was awarded to the 1956 edition of the “Cycle” by the David J. Settle Company, manufacturer of covers and posters of the annual contest. The prize carries with it a cash award of one hundred dollars.

This contest, conducted each year by the annual company to achieve the same results, has now been given second prize for the second year in a row.
The covers for the “Cycle” for the past several years have been mainly by the Moyle Co. The distribution of the cash prize of one hundred dollars has not yet been decided. This is not always the case, as previously the prize was also given to the company that produced the best cover. The 1956 award for the best cover was given to "The Rockies," produced by the Settle Company.

The 1956 contest for the best cover was conducted with the same rules as in previous years, the deadline being 1957. The contest is open to all students of the college who are members of the annual company. The prize will be awarded to the winner of the contest.

Dear Paul J.

When I received the assignment to write something, I absolutely realized why it is that so many columnists and cornploits are called "jingles." I can't explain it, but I think it is because of a humorous paragraph, every time you see a mudskippers or mudskippers, you can't help but laugh. Consequently, I submit this paragraph as a substitute, hoping thereby to get another fish in the sack.

Counsel A.P. White told the assembled that the State and the Federal bills are two different bills that have gone through the same process.

As you may have seen, this new system has, and with the adoption of the petition plus of accommodation, the school will be a case where the best man will win, and all the little tricks of the trade, as much as possible, will be taken out of the school. As a result of this training of trial, all school affairs have suffered, both in the type of handling and finance.

ELECTIONS

A new political party for the school elections has been announced and we feel that it is a good step forward for the school system. Under this new plan, the election in all classes is to be held for the best students of each class, according to the following procedures:

1. The class and the school officers.
2. The class and the school officers.
3. The class and the school officers.
4. The class and the school officers.
5. The class and the school officers.
6. The class and the school officers.
7. The class and the school officers.

Frankfort-on-the-Main, Germany

August 16th, 1809.

My Dear Sir,

During our recent stay in Germany, and I may add that due to rains and cold it has not been very pleasant. However, in spite of this, it has been interesting enough to keep us hopping around from one town to another.

Berlin, and in all the larger cities of Germany, one finds a great many of them, always in the smaller and more provincial towns we are impressed with German efficiency and intelligence.

We plan to stay in Germany several more weeks and then continue on to Italy. In all probability we shall return to Winnie the first of November. I am writing from Frankfurt for return on the same day.

Sincerely,

Alexander H. Shale.
